

Children under the age of Five and Individuals Below Poverty in Seymour, CT.

This Map represents the 2003 American Census data of children under the age of five and individuals living below poverty in Seymour. The various colors correspond to the legend representing the percentage of children under five to the total population of that block group

Seymour

Note:
Block Group Geography is the smallest division of census data collection available

February 10, 2006
D. Elder

The Valley Council of Governments is not responsible for errors or omissions contained in this map